little bit and a bit are common idiomatic phrases in english meaning a small amount editor neil serven helps explain this idiom this phrase may sound redundant because the word bit on its own can mean piece as in a bit of news so a little bit is often preferred to reinforce the idea of smallness according to dictionary meaning the word little and bit can be used interchangeably so the second and the third sentences are the same the degree of angry is small and for a short time when we compare it
